Penny Dominici is retiring from the Country Store. Penni Parsons will take over. Penny Dominici suggested donating the remaining fabric to community quilts or Pam Gremore for the guild meeting raffle. It was also suggested to let member look through the fabric. Paula Bibby to bring fabric to next guild meeting.

Debby Sweeten: [REDACTED]

Sandy Askin: Small quilt auction. Please pick up left over quilts from her. Kathy Scott stated the auction brought in [REDACTED]

Joan Edson: Thank everyone for helping with Vignettes. Pam Gremore will help her next year.

Cherita Gruenfelt: [REDACTED] Thanks to all who donated and helped organize baskets.

Louise Myers: [REDACTED]

Paula Bibby: Thanks to all who helped with the frames.

Hilde Langlet: Thank you all for creating window displays. I will be retiring.

Challenge quilts winners were: Barbara Wieland for funniest, Joa Rogers for most unusual and Patty Carr for favorite.

Sandy Wagner: Thanks to all! We will have a short meeting next meeting. Please be sure your binders are complete with a budget. Pat B., please create a binder for the boutique. We received a lot of compliments for our wearables. We have donated the lattice to the fairgrounds and were told we can use them for our quilt shows. They were just too heavy to carry back and forth. If anyone has suggestions for the next quilt show, please let me or Penny D. award.

Break

Suggestion: We move our storage unit to the Ranch House Storage. Mary Parker to check on details.

Michelle Kelly: Update on 501 Committee. (see attached)

Show and tell.

Adjourn: 11:45 a.m.
